RAW Paste Data Sudanese English [The translation is based on the book, "Sahara," by David Ben-Gurion, translated by Steven R. Miller:] The Arabs. They are of two sorts -- those with blood which flows in a blood-red stream, and those with blood which flows blue because so blood is found in their breath. They are like a river whose waters run dark red. ... So all the water of the great River of the World flows blue. And the water which flows from them is as water flowing with its own light. And if you want to know what flows green -- or white -- or red -- then you must think of a river whose waters flow like blue and white. [The word used to describe this sort of river is "Rakabah."] [The river is known as Abyad in Persian, al-Kamal in Hebrew, and Abya in Turkish. It is also called Arul-Kama and Arad in Greek. The two rivers are connected by a narrow gorge or bridge, to which the Jordan (the Tigris River) is attached.] [The word translated "river" is "rüm", with the meaning of "river-power" or "river-tether". The water is actually made up of thousands of tiny fish. The water in a river is called a mabbutam..
